

TRACK SPEAKER

COLIN COLEMAN

Colin is a Senior Fellow and Lecturer at Yale University's Jackson Institute for Global Affairs. A former partner of Goldman Sachs, he was Chief Executive Officer, Sub Saharan Africa, Goldman Sachs up until his retirement end 2019. He was head of the Goldman Sachs South Africa office from 2000. In 2008, he was named head of the Investment Banking Division for Sub-Saharan Africa. He was named managing director in 2002 and partner in 2010. Colin was an anti-apartheid activist and deeply involved in South Africa's constitutional transition from apartheid to democracy. He served in working groups of the multi-party talks, facilitated the International Mediation Forum and helped to negotiate the agreement to facilitate all parties' participation in South Africa's 1994 elections. Colin was named one of the World Economic Forum's "Global Leaders for Tomorrow". He was also a recipient of Harvard Business School's "Business Statesman Award" on behalf of the Consultative Business Movement and was named one of Euromoney's World Top Ten "Financing leaders for the 21st Century." Colin is an independent non-executive member of the Board of The Foschini Group. He also serves on the Steering Committee of the CEO Initiative, and is Co-Chairman of the Youth Employment Service (YES).