

TRACK SPEAKER

JASMIN PILLAY

DIRECTOR OF HUMAN RESOURCES
MICROSOFT SOUTH AFRICA

Jasmin is currently Director of Human Resources for Microsoft South Africa, with overall accountability for People Priorities, Strategy & Organisational Effectiveness. She joined from PETRONAS Lubricants International (PLI) where her portfolios included, as a member of the various leadership teams, leading HR for the PLI Africa & Middle East cluster, Global HR Lead for HR Information Systems & Process Alignment, Head of Global Change Management for Transformation; leading Global Change Management for PLI Global Sales and Operations Planning (S&OP). Jasmin was identified as a Global Influencer for the PETRONAS Downstream business for Organisational Design and Effectiveness in Performance and Culture Transformation supporting Business Transformation. Her time with PETRONAS included a secondment to Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia where she spent time supporting Group and Divisional businesses. Jasmin's experience extends to start-up business where she lead People initiatives in the pivotal set-up of the global Division of Aspen Global Incorporated located in Mauritius and subsequent set-up in Dubai including support of other global destinations across Europe, Latam and Africa - at the same time fulfilling roles as Group Recruitment Manager and HR Manager for the holding company. She also initiated and managed her own HR Consultancy practice specialising in financial and executive talent management covering a global client base through a direct and indirect model of partner networks. Her contributions in the field of human capital and consulting was further cemented during her time as Regional Manager for the Appointments division of PricewaterhouseCoopers and as Manager for Kelly Human capital in her earlier days.