

TRACK SPEAKER

DR. NATASHA WINKLER-TITUS

Dr. Natasha Winkler-Titus was awarded the 2019 Organizational Psychology Practitioner of the year-South Africa and was awarded Best paper at the 2018 British Academy of management (BAM) Annual conference in Bristol, UK. Natasha believes in using her influence and platforms to empower others toward significance and drive societal change and transformation. Following a career in Management consulting where she held senior management roles with Rio Tinto and KPMG, she now consults and is the founder of SigniFYER, a body of associates aiming to making change significant for individuals and organisations. Natasha holds a PhD in Organisational Psychology and is registered with the Health Professions Council South Africa (HPCSA). She serves on the board of the society of work psychologists in SA (SIOPSA) as President and also holds membership of the British academy of management and the European association of Work and organisational psychology. She is a faculty member of the University of Stellenbosch Business school teaching Organizational Behaviour and Leadership, an adjunct faculty member and external examiner for the university of Pretoria, supervise Masters' research as well as Industrial Psychology Interns. Natasha also serves as International Expert Panellist for the Centre of Global Inclusion.